Dear Rabbi Asher Gratt,

Thank you for your letter of 5 November, addressed to the former Minister of State for the School System and Student Finance, regarding Nahamu's "Education Policy Position Paper". I am replying as the minister responsible for this policy area.

I have noted the views expressed in your letter in relation to the Nahamu's "Education Policy Position Paper". The Nahamu policy position paper is the responsibility of Nahamu, and while the government considers a range of external reports, these reports do not constitute government policy.

I would like to assure you that the government is committed to ensuring that all children in England, including children from Charedi families, receive both a safe and suitable education.

Thank you once again for writing on this matter.

Yours sincerely,

Stephen Morgan MP
Minister for Early Education
